HOST COUNTRY REPRESENTATION

The host country shall only automatically qualify one men's team or one women's team. Any unused host country places (either men or women) shall be reallocated in accordance with the criteria set out below.

E. Confirmation process for quota places

CONFIRMATION PROCESS FOR QUALIFICATION PLACES

At the conclusion of each of the YOG qualifying tournaments, the FIH will communicate in writing the preliminary confirmation of qualification to the NOC and the National Association of each obtained place within fourteen (14) days of the conclusion of the particular tournament.

Upon receipt of confirmation of qualification to the YOG hockey tournament from the FIH, the NOC must confirm its acceptance of the obtained place in writing within 14 days of the issue of the invitation to participate in the YOG to the FIH and the NYOGOC.

At the conclusion of the last qualifying event of the four team sports (Football, Handball, Hockey, and Rugby), the FIH will communicate in writing the final confirmation of qualification to the NOCs and the National Associations.

CONFIRMATION PROCESS FOR HOST COUNTRY PLACES

At the conclusion of the Asian YOG qualifying tournament, the FIH will communicate in writing the confirmation of qualification to the host country and the host National Association of each obtained place within fourteen (14) days of the conclusion of the tournament.

Upon receipt of confirmation of qualification to the YOG hockey tournament from the FIH, the host NOC must confirm its acceptance in writing of the obtained place within 14 days to the FIH and the NYOGOC.

F. Reallocation of unused quota places

REALLOCATION OF UNUSED QUALIFICATION PLACES

In the event that an NOC does not accept an obtained place or in the event that an NOC qualifies more than one women's and one men's team across all team sports (Football, Handball, Hockey and Rugby), the FIH will communicate in writing the confirmation of qualification to the NOC and the National Association of the next best ranked teams in order at the relevant continental qualifying tournament until the continental allocation is accepted.

Should the offer of a place in the YOG not be accepted by any of the teams that played in a particular continental qualification tournament, the vacant place(s) will be subsequently offered as follows:

Men

The first offer of an unused qualification place will be to the highest placed non-qualified team in Europe from the European continental qualification event, in the following order of priority: Championship, Championship II and Championship III.

If that offer is not accepted, the next offer will be to the highest placed non-qualified team in Asia from the Asian continental qualification event.

If that offer is not accepted, the next offer will be to the highest placed non-qualified team in America from the American continental qualification event.

If that offer is not accepted, the next offer will be to the highest placed non-qualified team in Africa from the African continental qualification event.

If that offer is not accepted, the next offer will be to the highest placed non-qualified team in Oceania from the Oceania continental qualification event.

If that offer is not accepted, the next offer will be to the highest placed non-qualified team that has not previously been offered a place in Europe, and so on in order, i.e. Asia, America, Africa, Oceania and Europe, from their respective continental qualification event.

Women

The first offer of an unused qualification place will be to the highest placed non-qualified team in Europe from the European continental qualification event, in the following order of priority: Championship, Championship II and Championship III.

If that offer is not accepted, the next offer will be to the highest placed non-qualified team in America from the American continental qualification event.

If that offer is not accepted, the next offer will be to the highest placed non-qualified team in Asia from the Asian continental qualification event.

If that offer is not accepted, the next offer will be to the highest placed non-qualified team in Africa from the African continental qualification event.

If that offer is not accepted, the next offer will be to the highest placed non-qualified team in Oceania from the Oceania continental qualification event.

If that offer is not accepted, the next offer will be to the highest placed non-qualified team that has not previously been offered a place in Europe, and so on in order, i.e. Asia, America, Africa, Oceania and Europe, from their respective continental qualification event.

REALLOCATION OF UNUSED HOST COUNTRY PLACES

Should the host NOC decline either of its places, the additional place will be offered to the next best ranked team from the Asian qualification tournament.

In the event that China is the continental champion or runner-up of Asia and declines its invitation to participate in either gender, its place will be offered to the team that finishes third in the gender that the quota place was declined from the Asian qualifying tournament. If that offer is declined the above process for the reallocation of unused qualification places will be used.
